

20th National Conference on Child Abuse & Neglect

Pre-Conference Film Forum Tuesday, August 30, 6:00 pm – 8:00 pm Grant Hyatt, Declaration Ballroom

“Resilience – The Biology of Stress and the Science of Hope” Trailer (2:21 minutes)

The new film ‘Resilience’ features trailblazers in pediatrics, education, and social welfare such as Jack Shonkoff and Nadine Burke-Harris in this compelling argument for using important recent scientific advances to address and prevent child maltreatment. Introduced by Janet Rosenzweig, PhD, MPA, Vice President of Research and Programs at Prevent Child Abuse America.

“Building Community, Building Hope: Community Parenting Sentencing Alternative – Washington State” (9 minutes)

The newest film in the Children’s Bureau Office of Child Abuse and Neglect’s Building Community, Building Hope film series tells the story of the collaboration between the Washington State Departments of Corrections and Department of Early Learning benefiting incarcerated parents and their families. Introduced by the filmmakers.

Feature Film:

“Wounded Places: Confronting Childhood PTSD in America’s Shell-Shocked Cities” (42 minutes)

Episode 4 in the Raising of America series, “Wounded Places,” portrays the many children, especially children of color living in neighborhoods of concentrated poverty, who have endured significant trauma, asking the question: how might they and their neighborhoods heal? Materials to assist communities in making use of the series will be available from the film’s producers, California Newsreel and Vital Pictures.
